

Effective as of April 20, 2020, IoTelligent, Inc., and its subsidiaries, (collectively, “IoTelligent” or “we” or “us” or “our”) have updated our IoTelligent Privacy Notice (“Privacy Notice”).

Overview

At IoTelligent, we respect the privacy rights of users and recognize the importance of protecting your information. We provide a cloud-based content management platform and our products make it easier for businesses to track workplace illnesses and prevent an outbreak before it happens.. This Privacy Notice explains how information (including personal data as defined under GDPR) is collected, retained, used, disclosed, and transferred by IoTelligent and the available choices you have with regard to your personal information. This Privacy Notice applies to information collected, used or shared by IoTelligent when you use or access our websites, products, mobile applications or services (collectively, the "IoTelligent Services"), including when you attend a IoTelligent event or otherwise interact with us.

Business Accounts

If you use the IoTelligent Services as part of a business, an entity, or a non-profit (collectively, “Organization”) that has an agreement with IoTelligent, then the terms of that agreement between the Organization and IoTelligent will supersede the Privacy Notice where the terms overlap.

Changes to This Notice

We may change this Privacy Notice from time to time. If we make any changes, we will revise the date at the top of this Privacy Notice. If there are material changes to this Privacy Notice, we may notify you or your Organization more directly by email or post a notice on IoTelligent’s website prior to the changes becoming effective. We encourage you to periodically review our Privacy Notice to stay informed about our data protection practices and the ways you can help protect your privacy.

Collection of Information

IoTelligent collects information in the following ways:

- 1. Information You Provide. We collect the information you directly provide to IoTelligent when you visit our websites or register for and/or use the IoTelligent Services.
- 2. Information We Collect Automatically. We collect information related to your usage of the IoTelligent Services and the devices you use to access those IoTelligent Services.
- 3. Information We Collect from Other Sources. We collect information from third parties where you have provided us with access to information from those third parties.

In some situations, you can decline to provide information to IoTelligent when asked for it. If you decline to provide information where IoTelligent requires such information to operate the IoTelligent Services and fulfill our obligations, you may not be able to use the applicable IoTelligent Service(s). Situations where this may occur include:

- Where IoTelligent asks you to provide personal information to be able to add features or services to an existing account at your request;
- Where IoTelligent asks you to provide personal information to create an account; or
- Where a third-party application on IoTelligent asks you to provide information to use their feature or service.

There may be situations where you do not have the ability to decline to provide information. This includes where IoTelligent automatically collects personal information through your use of IoTelligent Services. For any questions about providing us with your personal information, please contact us at privacy@getiotelligent.com

Use of Information

IoTelligent uses information collected for the purpose of providing the IoTelligent Services. IoTelligent will process and transfer information within and to the U.S. and other countries and territories from which IoTelligent or its authorized third parties may operate, which may have different privacy laws from your country of residence.

Sharing and Disclosure of Information

We will not share personal information about you or any Content with any third parties, unless you allow it, as described in this Privacy Notice, or in connection with providing you the IoTelligent Services. We may share information with (i) third parties and vendors or other services providers working on our behalf; (ii) the third-party IoTelligent integrations or other third-party products that you choose to use while working with the IoTelligent Services or (iii) when necessary, to protect the security and safety of our users or when required by law or a legal process.

Protection of Personal Information

IoTelligent is committed to securing your personal information. We take appropriate technological and organizational measures to help protect your personal information from loss, theft, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction. IoTelligent complies with applicable data protection, privacy, and security breach notification laws.

Some of the ways in which IoTelligent protects your personal information include:

- We encrypt your Content when it is stored at rest in our data centers.

- We protect sensitive information with encryption during transmission over the public Internet.
- We keep the servers on which personal information is stored in a controlled environment with limited access.
- We maintain a wide variety of compliance and security programs.

Our Policy Toward Children

The loTelligent Services are not directed to individuals under the age of 18 and we do not knowingly collect information from anyone under 18. If you become aware that a child has provided us with personal information, please contact us at privacy@getiotelligent.com. If we become aware that a child under 18 has provided us with personal information, we will take steps to delete such information as soon as possible.
